I can confidently say that the reason I was able to create the work you see here is because of the great teachers that have helped me along the way. They've stuck with me through thick and thin, and I am eternally grateful for the perseverance they've shown. I plan to make more work with the foundation they've laid out for me, and show them just how far their help has gotten me.

Thank you to all of my art teachers who have dealt with me for the past four years. I've learned so much in each of my art classes and I am grateful to those that have pushed me to do my best. I am so thankful for Ms. Luna for always understanding me and kept pushing me on my art work to get it done and to believe in what I was able to create. I want to thank Ms. Smith for helping me out and giving me suggestions on how to do better on my art work. I want to thank Mr. Kirkpatrick for helping me understand photography and to get better at taking pictures.

A big thank you to all of my Art Teachers that in one way or another helped me express myself through art and pushed me to do better. I learned so much about art over these past years, and the experience that I had with the art community at Carver High School will forever be unforgettable. I wish you all the best for the future. Thank you and goodbye.

I would like to thank all of my art teachers for helping me grow and develop as an artist over these last three years. From introducing me to new mediums to work with and encouraging me to participate in competitions that have built not only my artistic skills but interview skills. You all have been wonderful teachers. I know this year has been a very difficult one but I really appreciate you (cough, cough Ms. Luna) for dealing with me and making sure I was successful in your class. Without you all, I wouldn't have grown as much as I have, so thank you so much and GOODBYE!!!

THANK YOU to all my Art Teachers for always helping me out, for understanding where I am coming from and being confident in my ability. I am also thankful for my classmates and friends who have helped me out by giving me their feedback and opinions on my work. I can honestly say that this year I have become more confident in my Painting. You can see the big change from this year's work compared to two years ago. I'm very proud of myself. Overall, being in the Art Strand has helped me experiment with different art mediums. It has made me more interested in experimenting with a variety of art forms after high school. I can say that it was all worth it and thank you again to all of my teachers :)

Throughout high school I have been a part of the art strand all 4 years. Over the years I have learned a lot of things in my art classes as I have learned to step out of my comfort zone. I learned how to do things that I never thought I would be capable of doing. I developed a lot of skills and I also learned how to use different tools and gadgets to help me make it through art each year.

Remember the earth whose skin you are:
red earth, black earth, yellow earth, white earth
brown earth, we are earth.

Thank You to all of my Art teachers for always helping me out during these past years. During my years at Carver, I had the chance to have different art classes, and learn that I can do more than just draw and paint, but to design and take photographs as well. Even though I would doubt myself a lot, I can honestly say that this Art Program has changed me into being more optimistic and hopeful of the outcome of my work. Thank you again for always helping and pushing me to do my best and for that I will always be grateful for having you all as my Art teachers.

These past four years went by fast but they have taught me so much. To my art teachers, thank you for enlightening me on many different visual art subjects. I have learned to not hold myself back on ideas and how to improve my understanding and use of techniques when applying them to my art. It was great spending time with you all and learning new things but now it's time to depart and say goodbye. I wish you all the best! :P ♡

A big I learned a lot these past three years and felt for the first time the support of a teacher. I am definitely not the most skilled of the bunch, but I always wanted to push myself to bring something different to the table. I wanted to show my own person in my artwork, allow myself to experiment and teach myself to not be afraid of making something bad with the opportunity to learn along the way. It feels that the journey is cut short and that there is so much more out there left to learn. I want everyone to know that the Art Strand is so much more. It's a space where you are the artist, not looking to copy something already made or to learn something that you will forget. It taught me about myself and let me be the artist. I am grateful for Ms. Luna, Mr. Kirkpatrick and Ms. Smith for pushing us to learn what can't always be taught.

I also want to thank my art classmates. I always felt comfortable in your presence in the art room or elsewhere. I've missed having your chatter around me. You are good extroverts :) The environment you created in the 300 hallway was that of acceptance and I will forever be grateful for all of you.

These past four years have been really fun. My teachers have not only helped me grow as an artist but also as a young adult who's transitioning into adulthood/college. I've learned so many forms of art and how to incorporate them together and I can't thank all three of my teachers enough over the past four years. I'm so glad I picked the Art Strand over the performing arts because I get to do what I enjoy while getting high school credits. Now I will be able to take the skills I learned into the world and use them to show my creativity and work ethic. I will definitely visit since my siblings will both go to Carver but as for my time here, I say my goodbyes and goodluck to the teachers and students.

Thank you to all of my art teachers for putting up with me for the past four years. I have finally grown to be confident in my artwork and I am able to appreciate every piece that I have created, no matter how good or bad it seems. It's funny looking back the past four years, seeing how much I disliked my artwork, thinking that it wasn't good enough. Skipping forward to my senior year I have finally accepted my work as it is, all thanks to my art teachers.

Thank you for always pushing me to do my best, no matter how much I wanted to give up. I was able to learn from my mistakes and push myself to create artwork that represented me. I will never forget my art teachers (Luna, Kirkpatrick, and Smith) who believed in me.
